

Asif A. Khan

Asif Khan is a Director at the Government Accountability Office (GAO) in the Financial Management and Assurance Team. His focus is financial management and audit readiness at the Department of Defense (DOD). Mr. Khan supports DOD's financial management transformation efforts through financial and performance audits and recommendations for removing impediments to financial statement auditability, strengthening internal controls, and modernizing business processes

He is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Government Financial Manager.